WELCOME NEW STGMA MEMBER

PACESETTERS QUARTET Fort Worth, TX

A new Southern Gospel quartet has been born. The Pacesetters Quartet website describes how it happened. "On Friday, March 15, 2013 at 10:30 p.m., Ron Higgins, Ken Hornsby, Doug Brady & Bink Mooney began Pacesetters Quartet. Their story continues: "We were having fellowship with some dear friends and stepped-out on faith to begin a new journey in each of our lives. Surrounded by those on the bus, we were prayed over for God's leadership and strength to begin this new venture. Our decision to be obedient set the ball rolling and the miracles that happened over the following fifty hours were totally a God thing."

The new group has hit the ground running. The former Praise Inc. members have a tour bus and an impressive number of concert dates in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Missouri, Colorado, West Virginia and Kentucky—and will be part of a Gospel Cruise Fest in November to the Bahamas. Look for a Pacesetter Quartet music project in the near future.

Visit website for Pacesetters Quartet at www.pacesettersquartet.com & follow them on Facebook. Contact Ron Higgins at (817) 721-5185 or E-mail: tenor817@yahoo.com or Bink Mooney at (580) 483-5349 or E-mail: bink.mooney@yahoo.com.

STGMA CONVENTION SET FOR APRIL 27

by Gerald Lyda

SAN ANTONIO—On April 27, the 14th Annual STGMA Convention & Gospel Music Awards Show will be held at Oak Ridge Baptist Church located at 10915 Vance Jackson in San Antonio, Texas 78230. STGMA members from Texas and Louisiana will be attending this year's event. Doors open at 10 a.m. for set-up of product tables and booths by artists, followed by a General Membership meeting at 10 a.m. in the Church Sanctuary. Afterward the meeting, the Convention Banquet meal will be served between 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. in the Family Life Center. Banquet reservations are required. The STGMA Gospel Music Awards Show will take place in the Church Sanctuary with many STGMA members performing their music. Membership voting results for this year's awards have been kept secret. Performers who are nominated for one of the several categories will not know if they are a winner until after they have performed on stage.

Master of Ceremonies for the Awards Show will be STGMA Vice President Robert Lanning. STGMA artists and groups which are scheduled to perform at the 2013 STGMA Gospel Music Awards Show at 12:30 p.m. include: Clifton Jansky - MercySong – Southern Plainsmen – Baggy Bottom Boys – Hearts of Grace – Dennis Rehders – Eve Wallace – Blue Creek – Western Sunrise – Gene & LaVada – The Arnharts – Watchmen of Texas – Armstrong Family Singers – The Van Martins – Gigi & Randy – The Pearsons – Joyce Emily – Fay Gassner – Lilly Hutton – Tommy Clark – Robert Lanning Family – Dave Nuttall & Henry Talbott.

The STGMA Convention is always a much anticipated event. It serves as a showcase for new and emerging gospel music talent. It is also a place where singers and fans can renew old acquaintances and network with established performers and concert promoters. Representatives of area churches can usually be seen—previewing the groups and singers which they are considering for their church concert. Additionally, music lovers can stock-up on the latest gospel music recordings and other ministry merchandise. Admission to the Awards Show is free. The public is invited to attend the event. For more information, call STGMA Convention Director Fay Gassner at (830) 534-2436.

A Message to STGMA Convention Artists

From Denny Fisher

This note is not intended to be rude or to complain about anything that may have happened in the past. The 2013 STGMA Convention will occur on Saturday, April 27 at Oak Ridge Baptist Church in San Antonio. The STGMA Leadership Team--composed of the Board of Directors and Officers--has approved the following guidelines:

1. The doors will be opened at the church by 8:00 a.m.
2. The STGMA Soundboard will be used for everyone. We cannot interface another mixer into the system. We will have 12 microphones available on stage, plus ¼" inputs. (Direct boxes will be available.)
3. STGMA has made arrangements to have a drum set on stage. No need to unload yours. STGMA will also provide a keyboard, a guitar amp and bass guitar amp. There will be 6 monitor speakers on stage-- 4 floor wedges, 1 on a stand by the keyboard and 1 by the piano.
4. Tracks need to be on a single disc--either CD or mini-disc. Those will be run from the Soundboard location. If you need help, let me know.
5. If you are using a computer, please have it ready to go, i.e. cued to your playlist and fully-charged or plugged-in. Power strips will be available. I'll have a 2 @ 1/8" stereo to XLR plugs available--1 at the sound desk and 1 on stage, if you prefer to run your own tracks. If your track doesn't play, be prepared to step down and re-set while someone else goes on ahead.
6. If you have any special technical requests or need any technical assistance, feel free to e-mail me or call me to discuss your needs. E-mail: DenSue72@netzero.net or phone (210) 831-8740.
7. Ministry (product) tables need to be set-up by 10 a.m. on Saturday. Any later will be a disruption to the activities.

Please don't take offense to the stern nature of these requests and stipulations. The STGMA Leadership Team is very focused on presenting a smooth-running convention that is pleasing to our Lord and we need your help and cooperation to make it happen. Since this year's convention is a one-day convention, we are on-track to have at least half of our 40+ performing members this year and we will be required to stay on a very tight schedule. We are planning to have a great time in the Lord, so be prepared to get blessed. This is my fourteenth consecutive year running sound for the Convention and each year, it keeps getting better. Sue and I can hardly wait. We are so blessed to know most of y'all and are looking forward to meeting you new folks and getting better acquainted with some of our "FAMILY" we don't see often enough. If you can think of anything I missed, let me know. Thanks. Love y'all.

STGMA Gaither-Style Jamboree: A Big Success

by Gerald Lyda

SAN ANTONIO—On March 23, the STGMA Gaither-Style Spring Jamboree was held on Saturday, March 23 at Kirby Baptist Church in Kirby, Texas—just outside the City of San Antonio. A total of ten STGMA artists and groups volunteered their time and talent to raise money to replenish the STGMA General Fund. Performing at the event were Robert Lanning of Cibolo, Lilly Hutton of Comfort, Tommy Clark of Kempner, Joyce Emily of LaVernia, Blanco-based Deanna & Jerry Dosser of Western Sunrise, Phil Williams of Manor, KingsRiver of Fort Worth, Eve Wallace of San Antonio, The Watchmen of Texas from Sinton and Fay Gassner of Stockdale, who also emceed the event.

While all performances were well-received by concertgoers, there were three acts that really made the fans sit-up and take notice. One of those individuals was new STGMA member Phil Williams of Manor, Texas who delivered a well-disciplined solo performance that showcased his beautiful and melodious voice. Prior to joining STGMA, Mr. Williams performed extensively throughout much of the Lone Star State as a member of Debbie Daniel's Grand Ole Gospel musical troupe.

The second noteworthy performance was by KingsRiver of Fort Worth. In January, KingsRiver performed in San Antonio as a mixed trio, but two months later—at the March 23 fundraiser—the group had reverted to all-male trio status with the addition of Matt Esquivel. Their harmonies were remarkably tight and KingsRiver's hard-charging up-tempo gospel song was exactly what the crowd wanted.

The third remarkable performance was delivered by new STGMA member Eve Wallace from the Alamo City. Not only is this young lady beautiful, but she has a classically-trained voice that delivered a knock-out version of “How Great Thou Art”. New fans of Ms. Wallace can catch another of her performances on April 13 when she and Appointed by Grace will sing at the STGMA-sponsored concert at Immanuel Baptist Church in Kyle. We wish to thank these acts and ALL performing artists for making the STGMA Gaither-Style Spring Jamboree the success that it was.

STGMA & CBGMA to Honor Henry Talbott Sr. & His Ministry

by Dave Nuttall

SAN ANTONIO—South Texas Gospel Music Association (STGMA) and Coastal Bend Gospel Music Association (CBGMA) are joining forces to present a special concert in honor of Henry Talbott's 63+ years in ministry and service to the Lord. STGMA encourages all friends of this 88-year old gentleman to reserve the afternoon of Saturday, June 15, 2013.

63 YEARS IN THE MINISTRY. Henry B. Talbott Sr. of San Antonio is an Active Member of STGMA and currently serves as Honorary Chaplain for the Association. He has been involved in the ministry and gospel music for over sixty-three years. He has been involved with virtually every aspect of church ministry. As a member of the singing Talbott Family, he toured extensively and performed Southern Gospel music. Mr. Talbott also booked and promoted gospel music singings and concerts. During his more-than-six decades of service to the Lord, he has worked with many churches, associations, professional people, celebrities and just-plain working people who needed his insights, organizational skills, encouragement or just a helping hand. He has surely made a lasting imprint on God's earth.

The concert will feature prominent artists from STGMA and CBGMA, as well as special guest appearances by some of Henry's colleagues over the years. The music performed will be personal favorites that Mr. Talbott has personally chosen. As many of these favorites as possible will be performed between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. The venue will be The Country Church located at 1005 FM Road 78 in Marion, Texas 78124. For more details, contact either David Surginer in Sinton, Texas at (361) 364-1819 or Dave Nuttall in San Antonio at (210) 497-7206.

Immanuel Baptist Church Will Host 3 STGMA Concerts

by Gerald Lyda

SAN ANTONIO--South Texas Gospel Music Association will present An Evening of Texas Gospel Music at 6 pm on Saturday, April 13 at Immanuel Baptist Church located at 4000 East FM Road 16 in Kyle, TX 78640. Headlining the program will be Appointed by Grace of Brazoria, TX. This marks the second time that this Southeast Texas trio, headed by Joe Irwin, has performed at an STGMA concert. Last year, the trio sang at an STGMA concert at First Baptist Church of Schertz, along with Faithful Touch of Mansfield. Although the group has faced numerous challenges in the last couple of years, they are back on the road--performing regularly throughout the Greater Houston area. Opening the program will be the Spirit-filled music of Eve Wallace of San Antonio. Eve has performed as the guest of Immanuel Baptist Church earlier this year. STGMA is pleased to present this classically trained young woman to Central Texas audiences again. Until recently, Eve performed as a duo with her sister. Her sister's singing career is on-hold for now, but not Eve's. Many STGMA gospel music fans who heard Ms. Wallace sing at the STGMA Gaither-Style Spring Jamboree on March 23 were blessed by her powerful version of "How Great Thou Art" held March 23. With two wonderful talents like Appointed by Grace with Eve Wallace, gospel music fans are assured of a wonderful evening in the Lord. Make plans to attend this concert. Kyle is located off IH-35 between the City of San Marcos and the City of Austin. Admission is free. A love offering will be accepted to reimburse a portion of the travel expenses of the artists. For more concert information, call Robert Lannina at (210) 315-7900.
