

STGMA "news you can use" GOSPEL NOTES

STGMA FOUNDED 1999

Volume 44
May - June 2019

My voice shalt thou hear
in the morning, O Lord;
in the morning will I direct
my prayer unto thee,
and will look up.
Psalm 5:3

THE LAST WORD...

Every one of us know that person that must have the last word in any conversation. As you read this you are already thinking I know who that is. You may think that — and think of more than one person — and it may be true to some extent. However, I would like to share a few things with you regarding... The Last Word.

First, we need to be careful what comes out of our mouth. Why, you might say? Because we are going to be held accountable for everything that we say; good or bad. Everything? Yes, everything. There is coming a day when we will stand before the Lord and give an account of how we lived our life in this world. What we did and did not do. Right or wrong. You see, the Word teaches us that we are to live our lives according to God's plan for us and not our plan for us. Seeing this is the case, we need to study the word of the Lord and follow it as He would have us to.

2 Timothy 2:15 "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." Isn't it odd that usually the first thing that you say in anger is what causes you the most grief? I have often said this: In the heat of anger, never say the first thing that comes to your mind; because that is what Satan wants you to say. Take a moment and think before you speak.

More important than anything else concerning the last word is the fact that God himself holds that right. In Chapter 22 of the book of Revelation, we find: "And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly be done. Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book. And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand. And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last."

Revelation 22: 18-21: "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of this prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. He which testifieth these things saith, Surely, I come quickly: Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen."

Until then...

Floyd

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

By: Fay Gassner

Brother Bob and Sister Kathy Middleton: We thank you for providing the delicious meal. Once again it was outstanding! Miss Rachel: Thank you for baking the cookies served during the break. It was a nice treat!

I would like to thank the students from Agape Christian Academy for the fantastic job you did serving the food and drinks. You conducted yourselves in a way that honors your parents and your school.

Having managed and owned restaurants, I know first hand how serving that many people is a difficult job even for professional servers. As volunteers with no promise of reward, you all stepped up to the challenge. I'm so proud of you all.

*To the Artists and guests: Thank you for your contributions in the Tip Jar. The tips go toward paying for the kids to go to Regionals where they engage in competition with approximately 300-500 other A.C.E. students from all over Texas. Most of them choose five different subjects in which to compete. They received $280.00 in the jar and another gift of $120.00 brought them to $400.00. PRAISE THE LORD!
