New STGMA Member THE JACOB AUSTIN BAND

Bryan / College Station, TX

www.jacob-austin.net

The Jacob Austin Band of Bryan / College Station is the Association's newest member group. The 24-year old Jacob, who heads the group, began performing at the age of 10 as a member of the Brazos Valley band, Troupe. From the beginning, he dedicated himself to his music and sought formal training through a voice coach. He eventually became a part of the Bryan Theatre Company production of "Big River," Roger Miller's musical tribute to Mark Twain.

With that experience behind him, Jacob formed a duo with his father, David Austin, a veteran 6-string & 12-string guitarist who had played in a band previously.

With his dad on guitar, Jacob sang and played mandolin & harmonica. Together, the father & son duo began performing at Opry shows, festivals and churches in the area. During the summer of 2006, they recruited "Mama Liz" and her autoharp to add a bluegrass flavor to their country gospel sound.

Today, The Jacob Austin Band continues to play throughout Texas and have regularly assisted in relief efforts for hurricane victims. The band's repertoire includes traditional country music, ballads and spiritual/traditional gospel music. Recently, Jacob competed in the National Traditional Country Music Association's mandolin playing competition and won the event. Additionally, the band's recent album, "Renewed" was selected "Traditional Gospel CD of the Year" by the Rural Roots Music Commission. For booking information, contact Jacob at (281) 610-3925 or e-mail: silverkees@aol.com.

STGMA FANS: 'ONE OF THE BEST CONCERTS THIS YEAR'

Clifton Jansky + Gene & LaVada = Great Gospel Music Show By Gerald Lyda

SAN ANTONIO—STGMA and Kirby Baptist Church hosted “An Evening of Country Gospel Music” at Kirby Baptist Church on Saturday, July 27. Featuring past Christian Country Entertainer of the Year Clifton Jansky and Gene & LaVada, the concert drew a larger and energy-filled group of gospel music fans. From the very beginning, Gene & LaVada had the crowd singing along and clapping hands to their music--much of which were written the couple. San Antonio singer-songwriter Clifton Jansky took to the stage and sang many of the songs that have won him international notoriety, including his trademark song, “From Amarillo by Morning to Amazing Grace.” The program concluded with Gene & LaVada joining Clifton on stage and leading the audience in various versions of “Gow the Light” and “I’ll Fly Away.” Many concertgoers commented it was
